

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

My Lords,

I HAVE the honour to return the Account of the Civil Contingencies Fund for the year 1880-81, transmitted in Mr. Welby's letter of 31st August last.

The Account has been examined as requested.

It remains for me to direct your Lordships' attention to the following balances advanced in, and prior to, 1879-80, which were outstanding on the 31st March 1881:—

Navy: advanced in 1879-80	-	-	-	-	-	510 l. - s. - d.

Dominican Government: advanced in 1871-72, 1872-73, 1874-75, and 1878-79	-	-	.	-	-	13,409 l. 16 s. 8 d.

Since the Account has been received in this Department, it appears from Mr. Welby's letter of the 29th September that further sums, amounting to 1,236 l. 10 s. 6 d. have been received by your Lordships since the 31st March 1881.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 23 December 1881.

I AM directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th ultimo, returning the Account of the Civil Contingencies Fund for the year 1880-81, and with reference to your observations as to the undermentioned outstanding Balances on the Account. I am to reply as follows:—

1. Navy, 510 l. This sum has now been repaid to the Fund.
2. The Dominican Government, 13,409 l. 16 s. 8 d. This is now reduced to 12,473 l. - s. 8 d.; Bills of Exchange for 445 l. 11 s., in further reduction of the balance have been received, but they are not yet due.
3. Colonel Colvill, 980 l. Colonel Colvill was Governor of Coldbath Fields Prison. He retired in 1878, and a pension of 582 l. 13 s. 4 d. per annum was awarded to him. Pending a decision in a suit as to the liability of the Middlesex Magistrates to pay a portion of this pension, advances in respect of such portion have been made to him from the Civil Contingencies Fund. When a decision has been pronounced my Lords will be able to give instructions as to this balance.
4. Borough of Armagh, 49 l. 12 s. 2 d. The Crown and Treasury Solicitor has been instructed to take the necessary steps for the recovery of this amount.
5. Borough of Maidenhead, 376 l. 18 s. 10 d. The "special case" referred to in their Lordships' letter of 11th March last was settled, and has been argued on both sides, but judgment has been reserved. It is considered probable that judgment will be given during next month.
6. Borough of Wakefield, 14 l. 14 s. The Treasury Solicitor has been instructed to take such steps as he may consider necessary for obtaining repayment.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I am, &c.
(signed) J. H. Cole.

Sir,

Treasury Chambers, 31 January 1882.

WITH reference to their Lordships' letter of the 23rd ultimo, replying to your observations on the outstanding balances of the Civil Contingencies Fund Account, 1880-81, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you herewith, for your information, a copy of a Report dated the 16th instant, from the Solicitor to the Treasury, relative to the proceedings taken for recovery of the balance standing against the Corporation of Maidenhead.

I have, &c.

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

Sir,

Solicitor's Department, Treasury, 16 January 1882.

WITH reference to the proceedings which have for some time been pending against the Corporation of Maidenhead for the recovery of the sum of 376*l.* 18*s.* 10*d.*, being the amount advanced by their Lordships under the Corrupt Practices Municipal Election Act, 1872, I beg to acquaint you, for the information of their Lordships, that when a verdict had been found, on the issues of fact, against the Crown, the late Mr. Justice Mellor directed a verdict to be entered for the Crown, subject to the decision of the Court on a special case.

After much unavoidable delay a special case was settled and argued, when judgment was reserved.

On the 10th January instant judgment was delivered by the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court. Mr. Justice Manisty gave judgment in favour of the defendants, and the Lord Chief Justice of England and Mr. Justice Pollock in favour of the Treasury.

It was thereupon directed by the Court, on the application of counsel for the defendants, counsel for the Treasury not objecting, that a peremptory writ of mandamus should not issue for two months, to give the Corporation of Maidenhead an opportunity of deciding if they would appeal, in which event proceedings for the recovery of the debt and costs will be stayed pending the hearing of the appeal.

There is, I think, no doubt that the defendants will appeal, and that the case will be finally decided by the House of Lords.

I have, &c.
(signed) J. F. Chance.

The Secretary, Treasury.

CORRESPONDENCE referred to in the foregoing REPORT.

(A.)

Inclosure Commission, 3, St. James's-square,
London, S.W., 6 July 1881.

Sir,

ON 17th February last you, on the part of the Board of Inland Revenue, addressed to the Inclosure Commissioners a letter on the subject of certain errors which had been brought to light in the administration of the Public Money Drainage Loans by this office: viz., one an undercharge against the Earl of Stair of 20 l., and the other an undercharge against Mr. W. T. Rothwell of 400 l.

The first of these, with accrued interest, amounting together to 28 l. 12 s., was, on application to Lord Stair, at once repaid by him, and the amount handed by the Commissioners to you.

The second, that of Mr. Rothwell, led to an explanatory correspondence, from which it appeared that the person to whom the money was originally advanced died in 1875, within a year of the date at which the periodical payments should have come to a termination. His son does not seem to have had any knowledge of the transaction until he received a letter from the Commissioners of 19th February last; but that gentleman having regard to the fact that his father actually received the money and expended it on the estate, expressed his willingness to repay to the Crown the principal sum so spent, but not the 172 l. representing interest subsequently accrued.

The Commissioners having been advised by their legal assistant that the Crown, for the reasons stated in the opinion, could not claim the deficient sum as an existing debt either against the present Mr. Rothwell,

Mr. Rothwell, the owner of the land in remainder after his father, tenant for life, or against the assets of his late father; and, considering the whole circumstances of this case, recommended to the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury the acceptance of the compromise proposed by Mr. Rothwell.

On the 16th April last the Commissioners were authorised by Her Majesty's Treasury to close with Mr. Rothwell on these terms. A certified copy of that letter is herewith sent.

Some correspondence has since passed between the Commissioners and Mr. Rothwell in regard to the terms in which a discharge of the debt should be expressed, and yesterday a letter was received from his solicitors transmitting two cheques amounting to 400 l., which were handed by the Commissioners to the Receiver General of the Inland Revenue. Upon receipt by the Commissioners of an intimation from your office of payment of these cheques, a discharge of the debt will be forwarded to Mr. Rothwell.

The Commissioners regret that an error of this kind should have remained without immediate discovery, and against the recurrence of which they have now made effectual provision; but they feel it due to their predecessors in office at the time (1854), to explain that drainage expenditure was then at its height, and they venture to think that not much fault is to be found with the record of an expenditure of four millions of public money, made by upwards of 9,000 separate certificates of advance, which shows only two errors, both of which have now been rectified without loss to the public exchequer.

Fred. B. Garnett, Esq., Secretary,
Board of Inland Revenue.

I am, &c.
(signed) E. Tattershall,
By order of the Board.

(A. 1.)

Gentlemen,

Treasury Chambers, 16 April 1881.

I HAVE laid before the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury Mr. Tattershall's letter of the 9th instant, and its enclosures, in reference to certain errors which have occurred in the administration by your Office of the Public Money Drainage Loans, whereby a charge has been created on lands of the late Earl of Stair, and the late Mr. W. F. Rothwell, of Foxholes, Lancashire, in which letter it is proposed to accept from Mr. Francis Talbot Rothwell repayment of the principal outstanding only, and to waive the claim of the Crown to the interest of 172 l.

In reply, I am directed to inform you that, under the circumstances stated, my Lords authorise the acceptance of 400 l. from the present Mr. Rothwell in satisfaction of the rentcharge of 26 l. for 22 years, due from his father, who, instead of it, paid only 6 l. 10 s.

My Lords are of opinion that the repayment should be spread over as short a period as practicable, and presume that Mr. Rothwell will be willing to secure the repayments when their amount and duration have been determined.

The Copyhold Inclosure and Tithe Commissioners,
3, St. James-square, S.W.

I am, &c.
(signed) James H. Cole.

(1107.)

Sir,

2 November 1881.

WITH reference to your letter of the 8th ultimo, transmitting statements relating to Drainage Advances and Repayments for 1880-81, together with copy of correspondence upon the subject of an advance of 400 l. in the year 1854 to the late Mr. W. T. Rothwell, charged, however, for the first time in the 1880-81 Account, owing to an error on the part of the Inclosure Commissioners, and for the repayment of which the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have authorised the acceptance of the capital sum of 400 l. only, I am directed by the Comptroller and Auditor General to request that he may be informed of the estimated loss to the Exchequer owing to the non-payment of any interest, for which it appears no claim can now be sustained by the Crown.

I am also to request that the Comptroller and Auditor General may be furnished with a detailed list of rent-charges in arrear on the 31st March last, specifying the periods to which such arrears may refer.

The Accountant and Comptroller General,
Inland Revenue.

I have, &c.
(signed) H. Treherne.

(C.)

Inland Revenue Office, Somerset House,
4 November 1881.

Sir,

IN reply to Mr. Treherne's letter of the 2nd instant, No. 1107, I beg to inform you that in the ordinary course a rent-charge of 26 l. per annum for 22 years would have been payable in respect of the advance of 400 l. to the late Mr. Rothwell. These payments would have amounted in the aggregate to 572 l., but as the capital sum of 400 l. has been repaid, the Exchequer has sustained a loss of 172 l.

I beg to add that the only Drainage Rent Charges in arrear on the 31st March last were two sums of 8 l. 10 s. 11½ d., and 7 l. 8 s. 10 d. respectively, amounting together to 15 l. 19 s. 9½ d., which became due on the 10th October 1880, and were recovered by the Solicitor on the 16th April 1881, by distraint on the lands charged.

These amounts are, of course, in addition to the sum of 400 l. above referred to, which was repaid by the present Mr. Rothwell on the 9th July last

The Comptroller and Auditor General.

I have, &c.
(signed) C. Turner,
Accountant and Comptroller General.

ACCOUNT rendered by the WAR OFFICE of the "LOAN for DEFENCES," for the Year 1880-81, in respect of FORTIFICATIONS, accompanied by Detailed Statements ; together with the REPORT of the COMPTROLLER and AUDITOR GENERAL thereon.

(No. 102.)

Exchequer and Audit Department,
Somerset House, London, W.C., 18 January 1882.

My Lords,
WITH reference to your Lordships' Minute of 16th August 1867, I have the honour to transmit a copy of an Account rendered by the War Office, of the "Loan for Defences," for the Year 1880-81, in respect of Fortifications, &c., under the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 109, and subsequent Acts, accompanied by detailed Statements, as prescribed by your Lordships' Minute before mentioned.

The Account has been examined to the same extent as the Accounts of Army Voted Services, under the 29th Section of the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, and it does not appear that the Services charged therein were provided for in the Army Estimates.

It has been ascertained that the Expenditure incurred has been for those Fortifications only which were authorised by the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 109, and subsequent Acts, and that the Expenditure is classified under the heads required by your Lordships' Minute.

The Account shows that payments have been made, in excess of the sums assigned by the Act, under the following heads, viz. :—

The Account transmitted is a final Account. It does not include any expenditure incurred on the actual construction of works, but consists of legal and arbitration charges, and special remuneration to the late Legal Secretary to the War Office for his services under the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 109, &c.

Of the total amount authorised under Statute to be raised for Fortifications, viz., 7,460,000 l. (see Schedule to 32 & 33 Vict. c. 76), 35,000 l. remains unissued, and of the sum advanced to the War Office, viz., 7,425,000 l., 4,080 l. 1 s. 10 d. was unexpended on 31st March 1881.

It may, however, be noticed, that more than the full amount sanctioned by Parliament would have been expended had not the rents accruing on lands purchased out of the Loan for Defences been carried in aid of the expenditure charged to the Loan.

It is stated in a letter from the War Office of the 23rd July 1880, that the sum thus received and thus applied, between 1870 and the 31st March 1880, amounted to 41,283 l. For the period between 1860 and the 1st April 1870, owing to the manner in which the Departmental Books were at that time kept, the War Office is unable to distinguish credits arising from rents from other receipts incidental to the purchase of lands.

It does not appear that the 23 & 24 Vict. c. 109, nor any of the subsequent Acts, provides for the rents of lands purchased out of the Loan being applied in reduction of the expenditure necessary to carry out the works contemplated in the Acts.

The subject was, however, brought under your Lordships' consideration, and the decision was given that the rents should not be paid into the Exchequer, but should be applied in diminution of the expenditure out of the Loan.

It is noticed in the 40th paragraph of the Second Report of the Committee of Public Accounts, 1878, that the formal sanction of the Treasury has not been given for the excesses of expenditure shown in the foregoing List, it being arranged that formal sanction should be withheld until the completion of the Fortifications authorised by the several Acts.

GOVERNMENT ANNUITIES AND INSURANCE BILL (EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 26 June 1882;—for,

COPY of EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM relating to the GOVERNMENT
ANNUITIES AND INSURANCE BILL.

THE object of this Bill is to introduce a new scheme for the working of Post Office Annuities and Insurance business. The details of the scheme would, however, be the subject of Regulations made under the Act (if the Bill should become law), and consequently the Bill does not, on its face, clearly explain the nature of the changes proposed. As the late hour of the night at which it was necessary to introduce the measure prevented any explanation being then given, the following statement is prepared for the information of those interested in the subject.

The Bill is founded upon the unanimous recommendations of a Select Committee of the House of Commons, appointed this Session to inquire into the operation of the existing Post Office Annuities and Life Insurance Acts (Parliamentary Papers 1882, Commons No. 138). This Committee consisted of Mr. Brand, Mr. Duff, Mr. Fawcett, Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice, Mr. Goschen, Colonel Harcourt, Mr. Mitchell Henry, Mr. John Hollond, Sir John Kennaway, Mr. Loder, Lord Lymington, Mr. Charles Ross, Mr. Slater-Booth, Mr. Sexton, and Mr. Storer. The reason which led to the appointment of this Committee was the very slight extent to which the public have availed themselves of the existing Acts. Evidence was placed before the Committee that the number of Life Policies issued during the seventeen years these Acts have been in operation, is only 6,524, amounting to 515,071 l., or an annual average of 384 policies, while the annuity contracts issued are no more than 12,435, amounting to 172,592 l., or an annual average of 731 Annuities. On inquiring into the causes which have led to this comparative failure, it appeared to the Committee that they were chiefly as follows :—

“ I. The absence of personal solicitation and collection of premiums, and the necessity of a visit being made to Post Offices to pay the premiums, in fixed sums and on specified dates.

“ II. The limited number of Insurance and Annuity Post Offices, and the early hours at which they are closed for the transaction of such business.

“ III. The limitation of the amounts for which Life Insurances can be effected, and Annuities granted, both as regards the maximum and minimum.

“ IV. The complicated character of the formalities which have to be gone through by those who desire to effect Life Assurance and purchase Annuities.”

With a view to the removal of most of these obstacles, a plan was suggested to the Committee by Mr. J. J. Cardin of the Receiver and Accountant General's Branch of the Post Office, for the amalgamation of the Assurance and Annuity business with that of the Post Office Savings Bank.

The Committee carefully inquired into the working of the proposed plan, and in view of the great advantages which they considered would result therefrom, if coupled with certain extensions in the limits of the amounts of Insurances and Annuities, recommended that a Bill should be brought in and passed with the least possible delay to give full effect to the suggested scheme.

The following is a brief outline of the plan in question.

Any person wishing to insure his life, or to purchase an annuity through the Post Office, will be enabled to go to any one of the 6,700 Post Office Savings Banks in the United Kingdom where he will be supplied with the form or forms applicable to his case, and such information as he may require. On the necessary preliminaries being completed (and it is proposed to reduce these to the smallest limits compatible with the safe conduct of the business), he will be furnished, if he is not already a depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank, with a Post Office Savings Bank Deposit Book, and a Deposit Account will be opened in his name. He will also be asked to sign an authority for the transfer of the amount of all future premiums as they become due, from his Post Office Savings Bank Account to his Insurance or Annuity Account. Into the Savings Bank Account thus opened the Annuitant or Insurant, as the case may be, will pay such sums as he may from time to time find convenient, and the sums thus paid, together with any accumulations by way of interest, or from dividends on stock purchased under the Savings Bank Regulations, will form the fund from which the Post Office will take the premiums from time to time as they become due. All moneys standing to the credit of the Annuitant or Insurant in his Post Office Savings Bank account, will thus be available for the payment of premiums, whether deposited specially for that purpose or otherwise, or arising from interest on the deposit account, or from dividends on Government Stock purchased through the Post Office. So long as care is taken to have a sufficient balance in the Savings Bank account when the premiums become due, that is to say, once a year, the Annuitant or Insurant will have no further trouble in the matter. In the event of the balance being insufficient to meet the premiums when they become due, a special notice will be sent from the Post Office to that effect, and a reasonable time will be subsequently allowed for making good the deficiency. The Post Office Savings Bank deposit book is available at any one of the 6,700 Post Office Savings Banks in the United Kingdom, and persons moving from place to place can deposit money at the Office most convenient to themselves, wherever they may happen to be, without changing their book or going through any formality whatever.

Under the present system, on the other hand, Insurance and Annuity business can be transacted at only about 2,000 Post Offices, and premiums can only be paid at the Office where the Insurance or the Contract for the Annuity was originally effected, unless notice is given to the Chief Office of a desire to change the place of payment. Moreover, the payment cannot be made before it is due, the Postmaster being unable to receive it until he has authority from the Chief Office to do so in each case. Thus difficulties, perhaps trifling but more or less vexatious, are thrown in the way of a person changing his address, or wishing, for reasons of convenience, to pay his premium a week in advance. Under the new system all trouble of this kind would be avoided.

The advantages of the proposed change may be thus summarised.

In the first place, the number of offices at which Insurance and Annuity business can now be transacted is only about 2,000, and an Insurance having been effected, or Annuity purchased, at one office, the premiums cannot be paid at any other office without going through troublesome formalities. In future, as it will be possible to transact such business at any Post Office Savings Bank in the United Kingdom, there will be nearly 7,000 offices available for the purpose, and as applications for the establishment of new Savings Banks constantly reach the Post Office, this number will steadily increase.

Secondly.—At present the purchase of an Annuity, or the keeping up of a Policy of Insurance, is a constant source of trouble to the person concerned. Attendance is necessary for the payment of a premium, a special book must be kept, and other rules must be observed. Under the proposed system when once the Annuity is purchased or Insurance is effected, no further action on the part of the person concerned is necessary. The premiums will be paid out of his Savings Bank account without trouble to him.

Thirdly.—

Thirdly.—At present premiums can only be paid at specified times and in their full amounts; under the new system, any portion of a premium can be paid into the banking account at any time, the only condition necessary to be observed being, that when the premiums fall due there shall be enough in the bank to meet them.

Fourthly.—The system of Insurance and Annuities will be brought to the notice of every depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank throughout the kingdom, the books used for banking purposes being the same as those used for Insurance and Annuity purposes, and therefore will necessarily contain the leading regulations on both subjects. The number of depositors in the Post Office Savings Bank is now about 2,700,000, and is increasing at the rate of about 400,000 a year.

Illustrations may readily be given of the advantages which would result from amalgamating Insurance and Annuity business with that of the Post Office Savings Bank. For instance, by the saving of so small a sum as a penny a week it would be possible to make some provision for old age, or to effect a Life Insurance. Thus a youth of 16 might, by putting a postage stamp each week on one of the forms, which are now received as Savings Bank Deposits, secure for himself at 60, either old age pay of about 3 l. a year, or insure his life for about 13 l.

If the saving was commenced at five years of age, the old age pay would be about 5 l. a year. It can scarcely be doubted that the first step thus taken to made a provision for the future would act as a powerful incentive to greater efforts, and thus an Annuity or Life Policy of considerable amount might gradually be built up. As it was felt that such commencements of thrift could scarcely be made too soon, the Committee recommended that the present limits of age which restrict Life Insurance to 16, and the grant of Annuities to 10, should be respectively reduced to eight and five years; and these proposals have been embodied in the Bill.

The Committee, however, thought it expedient to limit the amount of the Insurance to be effected upon the life of a very young child, and it is provided in the Bill that the amount should not exceed 5 l. on the life of a child between the ages of eight and 14 years.

Again, as an instance of the manner in which the scheme may be used to meet the wants of a different class, reference may be made to the fact that it is probable there is no section of the community amongst whom there is often more keen distress than amongst educated women, who are too old to be engaged as governesses, and to whom no other employment is accessible. If a governess began saving 20 l. a year at the age of 20, and continued doing so till she was 50, she would secure for herself at the age of 60 an Annuity of nearly 200 l. a year; or, an Annuity of about 130 l. a year, if the money was invested on the condition that the whole amount paid would at any time be returned, if it was desired to discontinue the payments.

As another example, if a person of 30 had 150 l. in the Savings Bank, he might, by giving an order that the interest on the account should be devoted to the payment of premiums on a Policy of Insurance, insure his life for 160 l., and if he converted the 150 l., through the agency of the Post Office, into Government Stock, and directed the dividends to be applied to the payment of premiums, the amount of the Insurance could be increased to about 190 l.

Under the existing law, however, none of the transactions thus referred to by way of example could be carried out, because the amounts of the Annuities which could be purchased, or the sums which could be insured, by the processes indicated, would be either below the minimum, or above the maximum, provided by existing Acts of Parliament. Thus, no Annuity of less than 4 l., or exceeding 50 l., can at present be purchased through the Post Office, and no sum of less than 20 l., or exceeding 100 l., can be insured.

The expediency of altering these limits so much impressed itself on the Committee that they unanimously recommended that the minimum limits should be altogether abolished, Annuities and Policies of Insurance being allowed to be granted for the smallest sums which may be found practicable; and that the maximum amount, both for Annuities and for Policies of Insurance, should be 200 l. These recommendations of the Committee have been embodied in the Bill now before Parliament.

It has been suggested that if the proposed increase in the limits of Insurance and Annuities is sanctioned, by the operation of Clause 7 of the Bill (which enacts that in computing the maximum amount of deposit allowable, payments for the purpose of obtaining an Annuity or Insurance, and sums credited to the account of a depositor in respect of an Annuity or Insurance, shall not be reckoned), deposits in Savings Banks might be raised above the limits at present authorised by law.

It is, however, not intended to allow depositors to retain in their Savings Bank Accounts sums received by them on account of Annuities or Insurances, if such sums exceed the statutory limit; and care will be taken to embody this restriction either in a Regulation or in an Amendment to the Bill itself.

As bearing on the extension of maximum limit for Annuities and Insurance, reference may be made to the fact that Friendly Societies are allowed to insure up to the full amount of 200 l. now proposed, and that the Royal Commission on Friendly Societies, which reported in 1875, recommended:

“That the existing system of Government Insurance through the Post Office for death and deferred annuities be extended, so as to cover the whole ground now occupied by what is termed Industrial Assurance.”

In order to give effect to the proposed scheme, it will be necessary that new tables for Annuities and Insurances should be prepared, and these tables will be so computed as to make the business a perfectly safe one for the State to undertake. By the Bill it is provided that these tables should be prepared by the National Debt Commissioners, and that after they have been sanctioned by the Treasury, they shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament for 30 days before they are acted upon.

The law of mortality which has been observed in the construction of the Deferred Annuity Tables is set forth in the Observations Nos. 13 and 20 of the Report made on the 28th March 1829 to the Lords of the Treasury by the Actuary of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and printed by Order of the House of Commons on 31st March 1829, in the Parliamentary Paper 122. The rate of interest fixed by law for annuities granted under the Savings Banks Acts is £.3¼ per cent.; for other Deferred Annuities granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt under the Act 10 Geo. 4, c. 24, the rate depends upon the price of the public funds on the day the annuity is purchased.

To meet this expenditure, there stood to the credit of this Account from last year, a balance of - - - - -	16	15	11
One-ninth Customs Revenue amounted to - - - - -	5,263	14	6
Interest on Loan to Committee of Lunatic Asylum - - - - -	9	-	-

the excess of expenditure over receipt, amounting to 587 l. 18 s. 5 d., being met by a transfer from the Isle of Man Accumulated Fund.

There being no balance in the Treasurer's hands on 31st March 1882, the only amount standing to the credit of the "One-ninth Revenue Fund" is the balance of 150 l. of the loan of 600 l. advanced to the Committee of the Lunatic Asylum.

With reference to the balance in hand on 31st March 1882, of 20,348 l. 5 s. 7 d. on the Account of Her Majesty's Customs with the Civil Government of the Isle of Man, I have to state that the one-ninth part of the revenue for the quarter to 31st March 1882 has been ascertained to be 1,091 l. 2 s. 10 d., and the amount due to Her Majesty's Exchequer (less the annual sum of 2,000 l. sanctioned by your Lordships for loss to the Insular Revenue on importation of goods that had previously paid Customs duty in the United Kingdom) is 8,000 l. After deducting these sums, together with 278 l. 5 s. 1 d. due to the War Department, and 845 l. 17 s. 7 d. due to the Board of Works, there will remain the sum of 10,133 l. 0 s. 1 d., which will form the Unappropriated Surplus due to the Isle of Man.

With reference to the Isle of Man Accumulated Fund Account, I have to report to your Lordships that the principals of the following loans have been repaid out of the loan of 130,000 l. authorised by your Lordships to be borrowed under the Isle of Man Loans Act, 1880 (43 & 44 Vict. c. 8):—

To Dumbell's Banking Company, Limited - - - - -	9,000
To Provincial Insurance Company - - - - -	4,000
To Trustee of Gilmour's Estate - - - - -	6,925
To Bank of England - - - - -	19,000
To Crown Agents for the Colonies - - - - -	15,000
To Public Works Loan Commissioners - - - - -	13,400

Two queries, one on the subject of grants awarded by the Science and Art Department, and the other upon the Census Account, have remained unanswered, and certain observations that have arisen upon Grants to School Committees under the Insular Board of Education have not yet been decided. In the event of their leading to the recovery of any sums paid in error, such sums will be placed to the credit of the Accumulated Fund in the Account for the year 1882-83.

To the account of Her Majesty's Customs in account with the Civil Government of the Isle of Man, I have, in accordance with the provisions of the Act 29 & 30 Vict. c. 23, attached my certificate.

I have, &c.

POPULATION, REVENUE, AND EXPENDITURE.

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 24 April 1882;—for,

RETURN “showing the Figures upon which the CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER based, in his BUDGET SPEECH of Monday 4th April 1881, his COMPARISON of the PROGRESS of POPULATION, REVENUE, and EXPENDITURE since 1842.”

Treasury Chambers, }

R. R. W. LINGEN.

EXTRACT from Mr. GLADSTONE'S BUDGET SPEECH, Monday, 4th April 1881.

“ I WISH to present to the House, in a very succinct and general form, a few figures which, I think, illustrate in a striking manner the present movement of public wealth, as compared with population and expenditure. . . . We make ground at such a rate, and for such a long time, that people begin to believe we shall never cease to make ground; but I wish Parliament to understand that we are not making ground at present. I speak of the last few years, and without reference to party differences, and I say we are rather losing than making ground.

“ In the calculation of expenditure I shall present, care has been taken to exclude everything that can be called occasional; all Votes for special purposes have been shut out; and if they had not been shut out, the result would have been, perhaps, more striking than that which I now present. For example, the 6,000,000 l. taken by the late Government at one period of their existence does not enter into the figures I shall present; nor does the 3,200,000 l. paid by a former Liberal Government in respect of the Alabama award. As far as possible the whole of the results are given in round numbers and approximately, and they do not include anything but the normal expenditure.

“ I have said there are three elements in the calculation—population, revenue, and expenditure. I begin with the year 1842; there are four different periods, and I compare the first year of each period with the last. The revenue referred to is derived exclusively from customs, excise, stamps, and taxes. I shall say a word or two upon the income tax afterwards, because I think to include it now would be to introduce an element that would be rather bewildering; but the points I have stated the Committee will see, on the whole, form a fair measure of progress or the reverse. The expenditure is, of course, that which we sometimes call optional; that which is in the main supply expenditure, excluding expenditure upon the debt of the country. The first period is from 1842 to 1858, the latter year being taken because it is the first year of normal expenditure after the Crimean War. During that period, which included the famine in Ireland, the population increased only one-third per cent. per annum. The revenue increased at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum; but the expenditure increased per annum $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., somewhat faster than the revenue. The next period is from 1859 to 1873. The population increased one per cent. per annum, the revenue increased three per cent. per annum, and the expenditure $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum.

“ The next period is from 1874 to 1877, and it represents what may be called the setting sun of our prosperity; the last years of rather fading brilliancy as compared “ compared with the economical results of former periods. From 1874 to 1877, the population still increasing at 1 per cent. per annum, the revenue increased 1½ per cent. per annum; but the expenditure increased at the rate of 3½ per cent. per annum. Taking the last two years, 1878 and 1879, that is down to March 1880, the population still increasing at 1 per cent. per annum, the revenue went back at the rate of 2½ths* per cent. per annum; but the expenditure continued to increase at the rate of 2½-th per annum. So that not only during three of those periods has our optional expenditure increased a great deal faster than our revenue, but in the fourth of those periods, that is during the last two years, our revenue has actually gone back, while our expenditure has increased 2½-th per cent. per annum; and I am sorry to say that when I come to make provision for 1881-2, I shall be obliged to ask for a further augmentation.

“ I will now present the subject in words which show these results in a simpler form. The readiest and simplest of all methods of illustrating the growth of wealth in this country is by a reference to the income tax. But, then we are met by this, that a penny in the income tax does not mean the same thing in different years. In the year 1853 the area of the income tax was extended. In subsequent years it has been considerably diminished, and it is necessary to make very careful allowance for all these successive changes, and to balance them one against the other, or else the comparison of the 1 d. of income tax in one year with the 1 d. of income tax in another year tends only to mislead. I will not go into the details of these changes. They would be wearisome, and they are besides unnecessary; but great care has been taken in preparing the very simple statement I am now about to submit to the Committee, and I can confidently state that it may be, as a whole, safely relied upon. The 1 d. of income tax in 1842-3, when the tax was first laid, was worth 772,000 l. No changes took place in the area or circuit within which this tax was applied in the first 10 years of its existence. In the year 1852-3, this 772,000 l. had only grown to 810,000 l., a moderate growth; but many changes have been since brought into operation. Between the years 1852 and 1877-8, the 1 d. in the income tax, after allowing justly for all changes in the way of allowances and remissions, so as to make the comparison approximately precise, had grown from 810,000 l. to 1,990,000 l.; that includes Ireland, and it includes all additions and remissions. What you must take into account is this: that the figures I am now giving for 1877-8, and those which I will give directly for 1881-2, are upon the supposition that the basis of the tax remains the same as in 1852-3, and therefore all changes are taken together. Well, having grown to 1,990,000 l. in 1877-8, in 1881-2, the 1 d. of income tax, which does not strictly represent the general condition of the people, but the condition of the wealthier classes of the people, has gone back for the first time since it was imposed. No such period can be found, as far as I am aware, since the year 1842. The 1 d. of income tax being, as I have said, 1,990,000 l. in 1877-8, is now estimated on the basis of last year at 1,943,000 l. for 1881-2. If the Committee will look at the Revenue Returns, they will find that the 1 d. of income tax is not worth so much. I have been obliged to debit and credit the 1 d. with every change made in the income tax since 1852, and unfortunately, I have had to debit it with a larger sum than I can credit it; and therefore, for the purpose of comparison, the 1 d. shows a larger yield than the actual 1 d. of the income tax.”

* By error 1/2 per cent. was printed instead of 2½.

The figures upon which the foregoing statement depends have been taken, as far as possible, from certain well-known Parliamentary Papers, in order to invite and facilitate reference and examination. The Papers in question are, (1) the Statistical Abstract; and, (2) the return showing the net charge of the public service to the taxpayer since 1857-8, obtained originally by Mr. Childers, and now usually moved for by Mr. James.

The numbers of the people are derived from the annual Estimate of the Registrar General as it appears in the Statistical Abstract.

The

The Revenue is confined to taxation, and consists of proceeds of customs, excise, stamps, and assessed taxes; the income tax is treated separately.

The Expenditure omits the charge of the debt and the cost of collecting revenue. It is made up of the Exchequer Issues for Army, Navy, Civil Service, Education, and Grants in aid of Local Taxation, after abating from each of the several heads any earnings or receipts not derived from taxation. The practice of bringing gross expenditure to account has varied so much from time to time that the principle, adopted in Mr. Childers' return, of charge to the taxpayer alone enables the expenditure of different years to be compared upon equal terms. Moreover, as the normal expenditure is the object of comparison, votes for special expeditions, or for special services of any magnitude, have been omitted. 1842 is selected as the starting point, because in that year the income tax was imposed, and from it dates the modern system of finance.

In ordinary times one might expect perhaps that population, revenue, and expenditure would advance in a similar ratio of progression. But if expenditure advances, while revenue is stationary or recedes, increase of taxation or a return to disused taxes must be the result. If such a state of things arises, the attention of the Government and the public should be directed to it by timely warning, in order that the State may not drift into difficulty. Such warning on the present occasion records the conclusion, to which the figures of recent years appear to point, merely as a subject for examination and consideration. It does not imply that prosperity will not return, and it certainly does not assume that the State has entered upon a normal period of financial retrogression.

1.—POPULATION.

Population of the United Kingdom estimated to the middle of each year (exclusive of the Army, Navy, and Merchant Seamen abroad):

(1.)—Middle of Year 1841	-	-	-	-	-	26,751,000
(2.)—Ditto - ditto 1858	-	-	-	-	-	28,390,000
(3.)—Ditto - ditto 1873	-	-	-	-	-	32,125,000
(4.)—Ditto - ditto 1877	-	-	-	-	-	33,447,000
(5.)—Ditto - ditto 1881	-	-	-	-	-	34,789,000

The population in the first period, 1842-58 inclusive, shows an average increase of about one-third per cent. per annum.

In the second period, 1859-73 inclusive, the average increase is not quite one per cent. per annum.

In the third period, whether taken for four years to 1877, or for eight years to 1881, it is more than one per cent. per annum.

2.—REVENUE.

The figures showing the progress of revenue and the changes in taxation are taken from the Statistical Abstract. As has been explained above, the "Revenue" is in this instance confined to the produce of taxation from customs, excise, stamps, and taxes.

The yearly changes in taxation make it difficult to measure with accuracy the progress of the revenue derived from taxes, and the difficulty is enhanced by the practice growing more into favour, because more for the public convenience, of levying different branches of revenue by means of uniform stamps. The closest approach to accuracy would probably be attained if, in comparing the revenue of two years, the quantity of each article paying tax in the first year was ascertained, and assessed at the rate of duty levied in the latter year. This, however, would be a work of much labour, and for ordinary purposes it has been customary to use a rougher method of computation. The produce of taxation in the first of the two years selected for comparison is ascertained. The amount of taxation imposed and remitted in the intervening period is then analysed, and the balance added to or deducted from the produce of the said first year. It is evident that the result should show roughly the amount of taxation which the second of the selected years would produce, if there were no elasticity in the revenue itself. The stationary revenue thus computed for the second year of the comparison is then compared with the actual revenue of that year, and the difference marks the progression or retrogression of the revenue. Thus in the year 1841-2 the four heads of customs, excise, stamps, taxes, produced 50,287,000 l. In the 17 years intervening between 5th January 1842 and 31st March* 1859, duties affecting these heads of revenue had been remitted in excess of duties imposed to the amount of 11,241,000 l. If the revenue had been actually stationary the produce of the year 1858-9 would have been 39,046,000 l. It was actually 53,188,000 l., or 14,142,000 l. higher than the stationary amount. It is obvious that addition or subtraction of the amounts imposed or remitted in the manner described over a long period of time is a rude process, involving inaccuracies, but the inaccuracies have a tendency to correct each other, and the general result tests fairly the progress of the nation:—

*The financial year was altered in the interval from 5th January to 31st March.

The

The foregoing figures are taken for the years 1858, 1873, 1877, and 1879, from the Return 394 of the Session of 1881, entitled, Return of Public Expenditure (Charge on Taxes). The Return in question has not been carried back to the year 1841-2, but the figures for that year have been recast so as to correspond with those of the later years.

In the first period the average annual increase of expenditure was 487,400 l., and the annual percentage of increase upon the expenditure of 1841-2 amounts to 2·5. In the second period the average annual increase is 374,000 l., and the annual percentage of increase upon the expenditure of 1858-9 amounts to 1·35. In the third period the average annual increase is 1,074,000 l., and the annual percentage of increase upon the expenditure of 1873-4 amounts to 3·23; while for the fourth period, viz., the years 1878-9 and 1879-80, the average increase is 801,500 l., and the annual percentage of increase upon the expenditure of 1877-8 is 2·135.

INCOME TAX.

As the rate of the tax has varied from year to year, its progress can only be measured by calculating the produce of one penny at different periods.

The income tax was imposed in 1842. Incomes under 150 l. a year were exempted, and the tax did not extend to Ireland. In order to compare on equal terms the produce of the tax in the early years of its imposition with the produce in more recent years, it is necessary to add to the latter the amount of abatements, and to deduct from it the amount of additions which have in the interval affected the tax.

(1.) In 1853-4, the tax was extended to Ireland. The produce of the Irish part of the tax at that time was estimated at 79,000 l. per penny: in 1877-8 the produce was 97,000 l.

(2.) In 1853-4 the tax was imposed on incomes between 100 l. and 150 l., and the produce was estimated at 60,000 l. per penny of the tax.

(3.) In 1853-4 life assurance premiums were exempted, the loss on which was estimated at about 17,000 l. per penny. In 1877-8 the loss was about 7,000 l.

(4.) In 1863-4 an abatement of 60 l. was allowed from incomes under 200 l. a year; the loss was estimated at about 57,000 l. the penny. The loss in the first year corresponded closely to the estimate; but it had risen in the year 1871-2 (the year previous to the change mentioned next) to 75,000 l. per penny.

(5.) In 1872-3 the abatement was extended, and 80 l. freed from tax on incomes under 300 l. It was estimated that this would afford a relief of 75,000 l. per penny. In fact, the loss per penny was not more in 1872-3 than about 51,000 l.

(6.) In 1876-7 the abatement was again extended, and 120 l. freed from tax on incomes under 400 l.

(7.) In 1876-7, at the same time the tax was entirely remitted on incomes under 150 l.

It is difficult to state the effect of these measures separately. The Chancellor of the Exchequer reckoned the combined loss at 130,000 l. per penny.

It is reckoned that the loss by raising the limit of total exemption, 1876-7, from 100 l., to 150 l., is not more than the amount at which the gain by the reduction of the limit in 1853-4 was estimated, viz., 60,000 l. per penny.

Upon that assumption the total effect of the two reductions was much less than estimated, inasmuch as the claim for abatement on incomes under 400 l. in 1876-7 was only 156,000 l. per penny, against 163,000 l. per penny claimed on incomes under 300 l. in 1875-6. The reason being, of course, that the exemption of incomes under 150 l. reduced the claims for abatement on incomes under 400 l., and the result would point to a total net loss by the measure in 1876-7 of between 50,000 l. and 60,000 l. per penny.

(8.) In 1878-9 an allowance was made for wear and tear of machinery and plant. The loss on this allowance was estimated at 10,000 l. per penny, and the actual loss has been about that sum.

The Income Tax of 1842-3 produced, per penny	-	-	-	-	£.	772,166
The Income Tax of 1852-3	-	-	-	-	-	809,630

The Income Tax of 1877-8 produced, per penny	-	£.	1,894,720
Incomes under 150 l. were exempt in that year, as in 1842 and 1852; but in order to put the tax on the same footing as in 1842 or 1852, the produce of the tax in Ireland must be deducted	-	-	97,450

£. 1,797,270

And there must be added for allowance on life insurance premiums	-	-	-	£.	7,000
Abatement on incomes under 400 l. (allowance made in both cases for Ireland)	-	-	-	170,000
					177,000

(say) 1,974,000

It will be seen that this amount is somewhat less than the sum given in the Budget speech. The difference is owing to a careful revision of the effect of the various abatements above described.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer made a calculation for 1881-2 on similar terms. He estimated the produce of the penny at 1,943,000 l. These figures cannot be brought to test for some time to come; but it may be stated that the result for the year is more favourable than the estimate.

In the last year for which the figures are complete, viz., 1879-80:

The produce of the tax was, per penny	-	-	-	£.	1,839,000
Deduct Irish portion of tax	-	-	-	-	95,000
					1,744,000
Add for abatements and allowances	-	-	-	-	202,000
					£. 1,946,000

[The exemption of incomes under 150*l.* does not affect the comparison, see above.]

It should be borne in mind that a statement such as that to which this Return applies must be essentially approximate, and not exact.

COPY of TREASURY MINUTE, dated 9 February 1882.

My Lords have before them the Report of the Postmaster General, dated 3rd October 1881, forwarding a copy of the contract for the conveyance of Mails between Alexandria and Cyprus.

By the contract in question, Bell's Asia Minor Steamship Company undertake during the continuance of the Agreement between such Company and the Postmaster General to convey between Alexandria in Egypt, and Larnaca in Cyprus, at an average rate of speed of nine knots per hour, all mails which the Postmaster General or his officers may require to be so conveyed by means of the Company's vessels running between Alexandria and Larnaca.

The Company is bound to maintain in proper efficiency a sufficient number of steam vessels of adequate power.

The Company is bound to land and embark all mails at their own cost. One of the vessels provided by the Company shall once a week put to sea from Alexandria, and touching at Limassol, proceed direct to Larnaca, and put to sea from Larnaca, and touching at Limassol, proceed direct to Alexandria, carrying the mails, and the period during which she shall stay at Limassol shall not exceed three hours.

The Postmaster General or his officers may delay the starting of such vessel, such delay not however to exceed 12 hours, or alter time of departure.

The Company are bound to carry on board their vessels whilst employed in the performance of this Agreement two officers of the Post Office to take charge of the mails.

Other conditions of the usual character are also inserted on behalf of the Postmaster General, which are binding on the Company.

In consideration of the due performance by the Company of the service there shall be payable to the Company a yearly subsidy at the rate of 6,950 l. per annum, after making any deductions to which the Company may be liable through default.

If the Company do not provide a proper vessel at the appointed day and hour ready to put to sea they shall forfeit the sum of 15 l., and a further sum of 5 l. for every successive hour which shall elapse (but not beyond a period of eight days from such appointed time) until such vessel sails.

Such deductions are to be absolute.

The Agreement commences on 1st September 1881, will run from year to year, and be terminable by the Company or the Post Office at a year's notice.

The Company is bound to begin the service on the 1st September 1881 or on such subsequent day as may be fixed by the Postmaster General under a penalty of 100 l., and a further sum of 100 l. for every successive day until the commencement of the service.

Other clauses of the usual character, as to unfinished voyages, notices, assignments, arbitration, exclusion of Members of Parliament from interest in the Agreement, approval by the House of Commons, follow.

By the New Contract the subsidy paid for the conveyance of the mails will be reduced from 9,000 l. to 6,950 l.

The service will remain as before, but the penalties for not providing a vessel to carry the mails at the appointed hour will be reduced from 30 l. and 10 l. respectively to 15 l. and 5 l.

In consideration of the very considerable reduction made in the amount of the subsidy, my Lords are of opinion that no objection should be raised to the reduction of the penalties.

Let a copy of the Contract, together with a copy of the above Minute, be laid before the House of Commons.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 9 February 1882.

MY Lords have before them the Contract for the conveyance of the mails between Oban and Fort William, N.B.

By the said Contract, David MacBrayne, Esq., steamship owner, of Glasgow, is bound to convey Her Majesty's mails between Oban and Fort William from and after the 1st April 1881, for a period of three years, after which the Contract is terminable by the Postmaster General or the Contractor on giving three months' notice.

The Contractor is bound to provide a sufficient number of steam vessels to run, at a speed of 13 miles an hour in summer and 12 miles an hour in winter, between Oban and Fort William, six days a week each way, calling at Lismore, Port Appin, Ballachulish, and Ardgour.

In case the Contractor fail to so provide a suitable vessel ready to sail at the appointed time of sailing, the Postmaster General, or the District Surveyor of the General Post Office, may charter another vessel and charge the expenses to the Contractor, and such expenses may be recovered out of any sum due to the Contractor, without prejudice to the right of terminating the Contract by the Postmaster General.

For carrying out the service a payment of 600 l. per annum, by monthly payments, shall be made to the Contractor out of money provided by Parliament.

If any of the said payments shall be in arrear for one month, and the Contractor shall not, within one week after the expiration of such month, give notice to the Postmaster General, the payment then due shall be forfeited, and the Contractor shall be precluded from recovering the same at law or in equity.

In case of the death or bankruptcy of the Contractor, or the non-fulfilment on his part of the terms of the Contract, the Postmaster General may put an end to it.

The Contractor is bound to observe the terms of the Contract under a penalty of 300 l.

The usual clauses, as to non-assignment, or sale of contract, as to arbitration and restraining any Member of the House of Commons from being a party to the Contract, are duly inserted.

In the district between Oban and Fort William, a saving will be effected by the withdrawal of mail carts, and arrangements consequent on the establishment of steamers, of about 240 l. per annum, leaving the actual cost entailed by the new scheme at 360 l. per annum. Whilst the advantages will be, as regards Fort William, an arrival of its mail in the afternoon, instead of at 8 p.m., and a despatch at 9 a.m., instead of 4.55 a.m., and at the intermediate places at which the packet would call, the gain would be greater than at Fort William.

Taking into account the considerable improvement in the service, and the comparatively small expense entailed, their Lordships approve of the proposed arrangement.

Let a copy of the Contract, and of the above Minute, be laid before the House of Commons.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 24th May 1882.

MY LORDS have before them a Contract which has been entered into by the Postmaster General and the North of Scotland and Orkney and Shetland Steam Navigation Company, for the conveyance of mails between Scrabster, Scapa, and Stromness.

By the terms of the Contract, the Contractors are bound to provide for carrying the mails between Scrabster, South Ronaldshay, Scapa, and Stromness, by means of sufficient and seaworthy steam vessels capable of steaming at a rate of not less than 10 knots an hour, and such vessels are to be approved by the Postmaster General. One of such vessels shall, during the continuance of the Contract, sail from Stromness and from Scrabster, on her return voyage, six days in every week; and shall, during the months of May, June, July, and August, be despatched from Stromness at four o'clock p.m., and on her return to Orkney from Scrabster as soon as the mails brought by the mail train due at Thurso about eight o'clock p.m. have been embarked; and shall, during the remainder of the year, be despatched from Stromness at 30 minutes after five o'clock a.m., and on her return to Orkney from Scrabster as soon as the mails for Orkney can be embarked, and the interval between the arrival and departure of the steam vessel at Scrabster is in no case to exceed half-an-hour, unless required for the mail service.

Each such steam vessel shall call at Scapa for the purpose of landing and embarking mails on all outward and return voyages throughout the year, and shall touch at the Island of South Ronaldshay for the purpose of landing and embarking mails on every return voyage from Scrabster to Orkney, weather permitting; and in case of being unable to do so at any time, shall touch on the next outward voyage from Orkney.

The Contract contains the usual clauses providing against lingering or delay (under a penalty of 20 l. for each case), against underselling or underletting the Contract, stipulating that, in case of dispute, recourse shall be had to arbitration; that the approval of the House of Commons shall be obtained; and as to restraining Members of the House from being concerned in the Contract.

In case the Contractors fail to provide for the conveyance of the mails, the Postmaster General may charter a steam vessel, and charge the expenditure on account thereof to the Contractors.

The Contractors will enter into a bond, of the amount of 200 l., for the due execution of the Contract.

The Postmaster General will pay the Contractors, out of money voted by Parliament, 2,000 l. a year.

6 MAIL CONTRACT (SCRABSTER, SCAPA, AND STROMNESS).

The Contract will come into operation on the 27th July 1882, and last for five years, then be terminable by either side on giving a year's notice; but the Postmaster General will have the power of putting an end to the Contract for non-observance of any condition.

The Highland Railway Company, who are Contractors for the mail packet service between Scrabster Pier (Thurso) and the Orkney Islands, have given notice to terminate the present Contract.

The service is now performed daily (Sundays excepted), and the payment is at the rate of 2,000 l. a year.

Until recently the packet ran from Scrabster, on the mainland, to Stromness, in Orkney; but on the completion of a pier at Scapa, near Kirkwall, that point became the point of arrival and departure for the Orkneys. This change, though beneficial to Kirkwall, was not advantageous to the residents of Stromness, and provision has therefore been made that the steam packets should call at Scapa and South Ronaldshay.

The payment for the service will remain of the same amount as at present.

Let a copy of the Contract, together with a copy of the above Minute, be laid on the table of the House of Commons.

As it is necessary, in order to give validity to the Contract, that it should, in pursuance of the resolution of the House of Commons of the 13th July 1869, receive the approval of the House, my Lords desire that their Financial Secretary will submit a resolution to the House, with a view of obtaining the necessary sanction.

Let the Postmaster General be informed of the date when the Contract receives the approval of the House of Commons.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 9th February 1882.

MY LORDS have before them a Report from the Postmaster General dated 6th December 1881 forwarding a copy of the Contract for the Conveyance of the Mails between Ullapool and Stornoway.

By the terms of that contract it is agreed that the contractor David MacBrayne Esquire of 119 Hope-street Glasgow shall convey or cause to be conveyed all Her Majesty's Mails and any guard or officer of the Post Office in charge thereof between Ullapool and Stornoway in the Island of Lewis and to provide and maintain in good order a steam vessel of adequate power and speed to be approved by the Postmaster General which vessel shall leave Ullapool for Stornoway and Stornoway for Ullapool once each way five days in every week during the months of April May and June six days a week during the months of July August and September and three days a week during the remaining six months of the year weather permitting The speed of such vessel to be not less than eight miles (imperial) an hour.

In case of unavoidable accident or if it should be necessary to clean the boilers of the said vessel a sufficient sailing vessel shall be provided by the contractor of not less than twenty-five tons register to take the place of the said steam vessel but to ply between Aultbea and Stornoway instead of between Ullapool and Stornoway should it be found advisable.

In consideration of the conveyance of the said mails the Postmaster General is bound to pay to the contractor the yearly sum of 2,000 l. but subject to a reduction of 2 l. per trip in case of a sailing vessel being employed in place of a steamer.

The contract to continue in force for three years from 3rd August 1881 and thereafter thereafter until one of the parties shall give six months' notice of his wish to terminate it.

The contractor is bound duly to carry out the provisions of the contract under a penalty of 500*l.* and is not to undersell his contract.

The usual conditions as to arbitration exclusion of Members of Parliament from interest in the agreement and approved by the House of Commons are inserted.

The postal revenue of the Island of Lewis in 1871 was 963*l.* it is now 1,323*l.* showing an increase of 360*l.*

The former contract involved a payment of 1,300*l.* per annum by the Government but an additional sum was provided by the late Sir J. Matheson and his representatives of about 800*l.* per annum towards the expense of the service.

The previous contract provided only for five mails a week in each direction in summer and three in winter.

In consideration of the facilities to be afforded to the inhabitants of Lewis and the increase of the postal revenue of the island my Lords are of opinion that the contract should be approved.

Let a copy of the Contract and of the above Minute be laid before the House of Commons.

MEMORANDUM.—The above Increase and Diminution Account of Salaries, &c. of Public Offices, laid before Parliament in accordance with the Acts 57 Geo. 3, c. 65, and 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 24, is not intended to refer to the exact sums issued during the year, but to the rates at which Salaries and Emoluments are paid. No return is, therefore, made of any increase or diminution caused by annual increments, or arising from temporary vacancies; but in any case in which the salary of an officer has been increased, diminished, or abolished, or in which additions have been made to the staff of the department, the annual rate of the additional charge, or of the saving, as the case may be, is included in the amount inserted in the Abstract.

COPY of TREASURY ORDER, dated 15th November 1881, as to LOANS.

My Lords read the Public Works Loans (Ireland) Act, 1877 (40 & 41 Vict. c. 27). My Lords also read their Order of the 15th of August 1878, giving directions as to the terms on which, and the manner in which, loans are to be made by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, under the 3rd section of the said Act, to local authorities or to individuals in Ireland, copies of which Order were presented to both Houses of Parliament.

In addition to the loans particularly referred to in the 3rd section of the Act in question which are dwelt with by that Order, the general terms used in the section include loans for the erection of new Court Houses under the Act 6 & 7 Will. 4, c. 116, s. 70, that being an Act which authorises loans to local authorities without interest.

My Lords are pleased to fix the rate of interest to be charged on loans for the erection of new Court Houses at 4 per cent. per annum; and they are pleased to direct that such loans shall be repaid within one year from the completion of the works.

Except as herein specially provided, the said Order of the 15th of August 1878, will apply to loans for the erection of Court Houses, as well as to the several classes of loans mentioned in the said Order.

Let copies of this Order be laid before both Houses of Parliament, in accordance with the directions contained in the 3rd section of the Public Works Loans (Ireland) Act, 1877.

POST OFFICE SERVICE.

(a) The Postage chargeable on Public Departments has not been paid to the Post Office since the beginning of 1868, but it is included in this Return as though it had been so paid.

(b) The Cost of Collection includes the sums chargeable for Superannuations and Compensations, also the Expenditure of the Treasury for Rates, and the Expenditure of the Office of Works and the Stationery Office incurred on account of the Post Office, and the postage chargeable, but not charged to the Post Office. It is exclusive, however, of the cost of the manufacture of Postage Stamps, which is included in the Return of the Inland Revenue Department. The cost of collecting the Commission on Money Orders is not stated separately, as it could only have been estimated.

TELEGRAPH SERVICE.

(c) The Post Office did not commence to collect the charges on Telegrams till 29th January 1870. These charges include the amount collected for the Submarine Telegraph Companies. They also include the value of the work done for other Government Departments, but not paid for, which is shown separately and bracketed with the Gross Produce.

(d) The Charges of Collection include the Expenditure incurred by the Office of Works in England, the Office of Public Buildings in Ireland, the Stationery Office, and the Treasury in respect of the Telegraph Service. The Expenditure of the Office of Works in England, which was first borne on the Vote of that Office, in the year ended 31st March 1875, was inadvertently omitted from the Return of that year, but it is included in the present Return. The Treasury Expenditure herein included is for Rates on Government Property.

(e) The variations in the Net Produce in the several years are attributable partly to the charges for maintenance having been very light in the earlier years, and partly to the circumstance of the Cost of Extensions having ceased to be treated as a Charge on Capital on the 30th September 1873. Further, the Telegraph Establishment was not fixed till the year ended 31st March 1873, and salaries amounting to more than 60,000*l.* were paid in that year, which were proper to the two preceding years. Also in the year ended 31st March 1875, there were adjustments of account whereby the Net Produce was reduced by more than 50,000*l.*

STATIONERY AND PRINTING (EXPENDITURE).

RETURN to an Order of the Honourable The House of Commons, dated 8 March 1882 ;—for,

COPY “ of a LETTER from the CONTROLLER of HER MAJESTY’S STATIONERY OFFICE to the SECRETARY to the TREASURY, giving Explanations with regard to the Estimate for 1882-83, and to the EXPENDITURE of the DEPARTMENT in previous Years.”

Sir,

30 December 1881.

1. I HAVE the honour to forward, for the consideration of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, an estimate of the sums required for the conduct of the business of Her Majesty’s Stationery Office during the coming financial year, amounting in all to 530,000 £.

2. Their Lordships will observe some slight alterations in the distribution of charges between the Sub-heads, which, with the reasons for making them, are explained in detail in notes.

3. The Estimate, which is based on the probable expenditure of the current year, anticipates larger calls on the Votes of the Department than in any previous year. The largest expenditure in any year, hitherto, was in 1875-76, the year immediately preceding the general revision of contracts undertaken by the late Controller, when the payments made from Stationery Office Votes amounted to 508,318 £.

4. In making the comparison which the near equality of this sum to the amount of the estimate for 1882-83 suggests, their Lordships will not lose sight of the facts :—

1. That since the year 1875-76 the Stationery Office has been called upon to undertake several new costly services, including, among others, supplies of stationery, &c., to regiments and depôts, county and borough prisons, dockyards, embassies and legations abroad, the payment of a subsidy of 4,000 £. a year to the proprietor of Hansard’s Debates, printing Customs Bills of Entry, &c., to no part of which corresponding charges appeared in the accounts for 1875-76.

2. That, besides these new services additional expenses, still heavier, have since that date resulted from the steady increase in the ordinary demands for supplies and work of all kinds received from almost every one of the departments supplied from Stationery Office Votes in 1875-76.

5. It is not easy, owing to the difference of prices obtaining now and then, to ascertain exactly the extent of the growth of business required for each Office. But it appears, from analyses of figures bearing more or less directly on the subject, that the increase in the quantity of work, &c. to be paid for from Stationery Office Votes, on account of the several Public Departments already supplied in the Year 1875-76, has, since that date, been at least 25 per cent. In the case of the Foreign Office the increase has been very considerably more.

6. There can be little doubt that had the contracts in force in 1875-76 remained unchanged, the amount required to meet the expenditure of the Department for the coming year would have been little, if at all, less than 100,000 £. more than the sum now asked.

7. It may be as well that their Lordships should be aware that the number of Papers "Presented to Parliament by Command of Her Majesty" rose from 287 and 292 in the Sessions of 1879 and 1880, respectively, to 388 in the Session of 1881; and, further, that the Papers presented in 1881 were, on an average, bulkier by more than 20 pages each than those presented in the two previous Sessions.

To the Secretary to the Treasury. I have, &c.
(signed) T. Digby Pigott, Controller.

P.S.—A Return is enclosed, in compliance with a wish expressed by their Lordships last year, showing as correctly as it is possible to give it, the cost of meeting the demands for Printing and Stationery received from the several Public Departments in the years 1879-80 and 1880-81.

ENCLOSURE.

RETURN of the COST of PRINTING and STATIONERY required by PUBLIC DEPARTMENTS, &c., for the Years 1879-80 and 1880-81.

THE following Return shows, as nearly as can be given, the cost of complying with the demands received at the Stationery Office from the several Public Departments, &c., during the years 1879-80 and 1880-81.

The cost of paper and other articles supplied, the prices of which vary from time to time, has been taken at an average of the rates paid during each year.

The figures given in the Return under the several Public Departments do not include the cost either of printing papers presented to Parliament, or of books set up to the order of the Departments of which any copies have been sold. These, although supplied in very large numbers to Departments, have hitherto been charged to special Sub-heads* ("Printing, Paper, &c., for Parliament," and "Printing, Paper, &c., for Stationery Office Publications").

The gross cost of printing, &c., Stationery Office Publications ordered within the years is added.

It is not possible from the statistics now in the Stationery Office to complete the Return by giving in precisely the same form the cost of complying with demands received to print for Parliament during the years 1879-80 and 1880-81, but a statement is also added showing the actual sums paid within each year for "Printing for Parliament."

* An alteration in the system of charging "Stationery Office Publications," which will render it possible in future years to show more accurately the expenditure on account of Departments, has lately been made, and is explained in a note to the Estimate for 1882-83.

COST of STATIONERY, PRINTING, &c., required by the undermentioned Departments for the Years 1879-80 and 1880-81.

SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1859.

COPY of TREASURY MINUTE relative to the SUPERANNUATION of TEMPORARY COPYISTS or WRITERS transferred to the Establishment of the CIVIL SERVICE.

Treasury Chambers, Whitehall,
1 June 1882.

My Lords, having read the Orders of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated 19th August 1871, 9th August 1872, the Treasury Minute of 27th June 1872, and Clause 12 of the Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated 12th February 1876 (see Appendix hereto), are pleased to direct as follows, for the purpose of accommodating their practice under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to those regulations :—

I. Writers employed before 19th August 1871, and afterwards without interruption of service, transferred to the Establishment, may, subject to such of the following conditions as are applicable to them, count their service as Writers for superannuation.

II. Writers (a) compensated under the Treasury Minute of 27th June 1872, and afterwards registered by the Civil Service Commissioners as Writers on the ordinary scale—and Writers (b) so registered in respect only of employment after 19th August 1871—being respectively afterwards, without interruption of service, transferred to the Establishment, can count no service before the date of such transfer for superannuation, except as hereinafter is provided in respect of Class (a).

III. Writers who, after their transfer to the Establishment, have repaid the commutation granted them under the said Minute of 27th June 1872 may reckon their service as Writers for superannuation as if they had not commuted.

IV. Writers who have not been required, on promotion to the Establishment, to repay the amount of their commutation under the said Minute of 27th June 1872, are allowed the following options, viz. :—

(1.) To repay during their service the said amount in such manner as my Lords may agree to ; and, on the completion of such repayment, to count their service as Writers for pension. So far as, at the time of their retirement, they may not have completed the repayment, they will be subject to stoppages (such as my Lords may agree to) from the pensions awarded to them.

(2.) Not to repay the commutation at all, and to be pensioned for a period of service commencing only from the date of their transfer to the Establishment. (See over for Appendix.)

APPENDIX.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 19th day of August 1871.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated 4th June 1870, Her Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners therein named have framed, and the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have approved, sundry regulations for testing the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and part of such regulations (viz., the regulations* contained in the schedule hereto), relate to temporary writers, whose services are not confined to any single Civil Establishment, but who represent, to whatever Establishment they may happen for the time being to be attached, the same description of labour:

And whereas it is expedient to place at the service of every Department where temporary writers are for the time being needed persons whose wages and conditions of employment are the same:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered as follows, viz.:

I. That no temporary writers be attached henceforth to any Establishment of Her Majesty's Civil Service except in conformity with the annexed regulations,* or with such further regulations as the said Civil Service Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, issue in execution of their powers in that behalf.

II. That a week's notice, which may, at the discretion of the chief of the Department, be extended to a month's notice, be given to all acting writers (except such as fall within the terms of Clause III. of this present Order) who are not willing to continue their service upon the terms of the regulations hereto appended.

III. That temporary writers heretofore certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for service in any particular Department, and temporary writers now borne upon the Register of the Civil Service Commissioners who have been respectively serving in the same Department continuously from a date preceding 4th June 1870,† be excepted from Clause II., and be retained, but only so long as their services are required in the same Department, at the salary or wages, and on the other terms, which they were actually receiving, and were actually subject to, on 4th June 1870,† without any addition thereto, or alteration therein, on account of service following that date.

IV. That Departments connected immediately with Courts of Justice, or with the registration of legal titles or instruments, be excepted from this Order, so long as the chiefs of such Department shall not have signified their consent to be bound by it.

(signed) EDMUND HARRISON.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August 1872.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Order in Council, dated the 19th day of August 1871, relating to writers in the Civil Service:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered as follows, viz.:-

That where the words "4th June 1870" occur in the third clause of the said Order, the words "19th August 1871" be substituted instead thereof.

(signed) ARTHUR HELPS.

* The regulations here referred to are not printed as part of this Appendix, not being in question for the purposes of the Minute.

† The Order in Council, dated 9th August 1872 (see below) provides that this Order is to be read as if the date 19th August 1871 had been inserted instead of 4th June 1870.

TREASURY MINUTE.

Treasury, 27 June 1872.

My Lords advert to an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated 19th August 1871, whereby it was ordered, among other things,—

1. That no temporary writer should be attached thenceforth to any establishment of Her Majesty's Civil Service, except in conformity with certain regulations to the Order now in recital annexed, or with such further regulations as the said Civil Service Commissioners might, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, issue in execution of their powers in that behalf.

2. That a week's notice which might, at the discretion of the chief of the department, be extended to a month's notice, should be given to all acting writers (except such as fell within the terms of Clause 3 of the Order now in recital) who should not be willing to continue their service upon the terms of the regulations thereto appended.

3. That temporary writers theretofore certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for service in any particular department, and temporary writers at the date of the Order now in recital borne upon the register of the Civil Service Commissioners, who had been respectively serving in the same department continuously from a date preceding 4th June 1870, should be excepted from Clause 2, and be retained, but only so long as their services were required in the same department at the salary or wages, and on the other terms, which they were actually receiving and were actually subject to on 4th June 1870, without any addition thereto or alteration therein on account of service following that date.

My Lords take notice that many temporary writers were serving in Her Majesty's civil establishments on 4th June 1870, upon terms which included certain annual increments of their wages up to a maximum according to their efficiency and good conduct, and also included certain provisions for terminating their service should it be no longer required.

My Lords further advert to various communications showing that the said last-mentioned writers had, up to the date of the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of 19th August 1871, generally, although erroneously, construed the said terms to mean that (with the exception of misconduct) the same writers should be retained in employment on their then terms, as long as work of the kind which they had been engaged to do required to be done in the departments where they were employed.

My Lords hold that in order to maintain clearly a distinction between temporary writers and persons serving in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, it was absolutely necessary to substitute such terms as those in the said Order in Council of the 19th August 1871, for the terms which included progressive wages, but, in order to compensate the existing writers, as far as is reasonable, for any disappointment which this alteration in the terms of temporary service may have occasioned to them, my Lords are pleased to direct as follows:—

Every temporary writer, under whatever name, who was on the 4th June 1870 employed in any of Her Majesty's civil establishments, and was engaged upon terms which included progressive wages, shall (subject to the provision by Parliament of the necessary funds) be allowed his choice of the following alternatives:—

(A.) Either to continue in his employment upon the terms laid down in Clause 3 of the Order in Council of 19th August 1871; or,

(B.) To retire, receiving a gratuity upon the scale of a pension commuted at five years' purchase under Section 7 of the Superannuation Act of 1859, as applied by the Treasury Minute of 14th June 1859.*

Those writers who may elect to receive the gratuities will be eligible for re-employment as writers on the ordinary scale under the regulations contained in the schedule to the Order in Council of 19th August 1871.

* Extract from Treasury Minute of 14th June 1859:—"With respect to cases of abolition of office which may arise under Clause 7 of 22 Vict. cap. 26, to persons who shall have served 20 years and upwards, a period of 10 years shall be added to their actual service in computing their retiring allowance under the circumstances described in the clause in question.

"To persons who shall have served under 20 years, and not less than 15 years, a period of seven years shall be added.

"To persons who shall have served under 15 years, and not less than 10, a period of five years shall be added.

"To persons who shall have served under 10 years, and not less than five, a period of three years shall be added.

"To persons who shall have served less than five years an allowance shall be awarded calculated at the rate of one sixtieth for each year of service, with an addition of one year or one sixtieth.

"In consideration, however, of the very small allowances which would frequently have to be granted in these latter cases, my Lords will commute such annual allowances for fixed payments calculated at five years' purchase."

4 SUPERANNUATION OF TEMPORARY COPYISTS OR WRITERS.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of February 1876.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

* * * * *

12. Appointments may be made exceptionally to the lower division of clerks from the body of writers serving before 4th June 1870, if thoroughly qualified, and from those subsequently registered by the Civil Service Commissioners; provided that the age of these latter did not exceed 30 years at the time of their being placed on the register; that at the date of this present Order in Council, they have served as registered writers for a period of not less than three years; that they produce certificates from the head of the department in which they are serving that it is desirable, in the interest of the public service, to retain and employ them in that same department; and that they prove their fitness by a supplementary examination.

SUPERANNUATIONS (SIR CHARLES HERRIES).

COPY of TREASURY MINUTE awarding a SPECIAL PENSION to Sir
Charles Herries, late Chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue.

TREASURY MINUTE, dated 2nd December 1881.

My Lords read the following statement submitted to the Board by the Chancellor of the Exchequer :

“ The Chancellor of the Exchequer cannot allow the retirement of so
“ old and so able a public servant as Sir Charles Herries, late Chairman
“ of the Board of Inland Revenue, to take place without a word of acknow“ ledgment. He desires to state to the Board of Treasury his strong “ sense of the devotion, assiduity, and talent which Sir Charles Herries has
“ for so many years applied to the discharge of his very important “ duties; and his regret for the failure of health which has brought the “ career of this highly valued civil servant to a close.

“ It is the less necessary for him to dwell at any length upon this “ topic, because so very short a time has elapsed since Her Majesty
“ was pleased to confer on Sir Charles Herries a marked and well-merited “ recognition, by raising him to the rank of Knight Commander of the “ Order of the Bath.

“ The Chancellor of the Exchequer recommends that in further acknow“ ledgment of the public services of Sir C. Herries, he should be allowed “ to receive the additional year of service necessary to qualify him to “ receive by way of pension the full two-thirds of his salary.”

My Lords approve, and are pleased accordingly to grant to Sir Charles Herries a pension of 1,353 l. 4 s. per annum.

Let a copy of this Minute be sent to Sir C. Herries, with the letter announcing his pension, and to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and also a copy presented to Parliament.
